

The EU is represented in the US by the Washington, DC Delegation of the European Union, which works in close coordination with the Embassies and Consulates of the 28 EU Member States. The delegation is a full-fledged diplomatic mission, representing the European Union in dealings with the US government in areas that are part of the EU's remit. They promote EU policies in the US, which includes presenting and explaining EU actions to the US Administration and Congress. By engaging with political actors, the media, academia, business, and civil society, they raise awareness of EU issues and concerns, and promote the importance of the EU-US relationship among the American public. They also analyze and report on the political, social, and economic situation in the US to EU headquarters in Brussels.
